Auscott Scholarships for 2009

Auscott has again awarded scholarships for tertiary study for students in the Gwydir, Namoi and Maxquarie valleys. Well over 100 scholarships have been awarded under the scheme since its inception.

Annual Auscott investment in the scheme currently runs at over $100,000. The scholarship assists students to meet expenses such as tuition, books, living expenses, as well as other compulsory and course fees, totalling $57,500 over the life of a five-year scholarship — $11,500 annually.

This year's recipients will join six carryover students who are currently completing their tertiary studies at various Australian universities and colleges. Presentation of the award follows an interview process undertaken from a panel made up of the NSW Education Department and Auscott representatives.

Moree Secondary College student, James Botfield was awarded the Auscott Scholarship for the Gwydir Valley. He will be attending the University of New England where he will study for a combined Science/Law Degree over five years.

Warren students Wesley Hamilton and Kyle Serdity shared the scholarship award from the Macquarie Valley.

Samantha Smith of Narrabri High School was the scholarship recipient from the Namoi. Samantha will be attending the University of Newcastle where she will study towards a Bachelor of Science/Bachelor of Laws degree.
